

TRU★MEN

PRODUCTIONS

Viri Veri

Founded by brothers David and Michael Martin. We tell true stories that hold up — in court, on the page, and on screen.

CLEARLY ESTABLISHED

OUR STORY

FIVE FORMATS · ONE RECORD

FEATURED PROJECT

Clearly Established

In 1996, at twenty-six, Michael Martin was arrested. In 1997 he was convicted. On March 27, 2000, the Supreme Court of South Carolina reversed that conviction — unanimously.

Between those dates: three years and eleven months in prison, and more than sixty documented days held past the point the law allowed. Clearly Established is the memoir of what happened — the conviction, the unanimous reversal, and the erasure that followed it — told by the man it happened to and the brother who watched, and backed, line by line, by the record.

Unanimous

S.C. SUPREME COURT REVERSAL

3 yrs 11 mos

INCARCERATED

~99,000

WORDS, MEMOIR

80

EPISODES, VERTICAL SERIES

READ ABOUT THE PROJECT

RIGHTS & REPRESENTATION INQUIRIES

A MEMOIR

§

Clearly Established

Michael A. Martin & David A. Martin

Viri Veri

We exist to tell true stories that hold up — in court, on the page, and on screen.

THE SPINE OF THE WORK

Three words, one family

Everything we make sits on one of three beats. The State convicted a man, and its highest court said so — unanimously. Then the words that said so were erased. And a century earlier, the same family's land was taken without lawful basis. The 860 acres are not a detail. They are the third beat.

Provocation

The case. 1996–2000.

A man arrested at twenty-six, convicted in 1997, and held three years and eleven months — more than sixty documented days of it past what the law allowed — before the Supreme Court of South Carolina reversed the conviction. Unanimously.

This is the story the memoir tells and the screenplay dramatizes.

3 yrs 11 mos

INCARCERATED
STATE V. MARTIN, OP. NO. 25093

MEMOIR

FEATURE

SERIES

Prevarication

The erasure. June 12, 2000.

pre·var·i·ca·tion — from the Latin praevaricari, "to walk crookedly": to depart deliberately from the truth; to speak so as to mislead.

The prevarication did not come at the start of the case. It came after the end. On March 27, 2000, the Supreme Court of South Carolina reversed the conviction unanimously. On June 12, 2000, that opinion was withdrawn and refiled — with language deleted. The reversal stood. The words that explained it did not.

That is the crooked walk: not a falsehood told to a court, but words taken out of its own record. The memoir names it. The record, as first written, answers it.

June 12, 2000

OPINION WITHDRAWN AND REFILED
LANGUAGE DELETED

MEMOIR

LEGAL VOLUME

Revocation

The land. Recovery, Decatur County, Georgia.

After emancipation, Neriah Fennell acquired 860 acres. The land was taken from his family through an act of racial terrorism — a dispossession with no lawful basis, whose record the family has kept for seven generations.

This is the story The Liberty Argument sets out and Estelusti follows on film.

860

ACRES, NERIAH FENNELLS LAND
TAKEN UNLAWFULLY

LEGAL VOLUME

DOCUMENTARY

WHAT WE MAKE

One story, every format it deserves

Books

The memoir and its companion legal volume, The Liberty Argument.

Film

A locked feature screenplay adapted from the memoir.

Series

An eighty-episode vertical drama built for the phone screen.

Documentary

Estelusti: What They Outlived — the revocation of Neriah Fennell's 860 acres, and what seven generations outlived.

OUR CORE VALUES INFLUENCE EVERYTHING WE MAKE

Four things we will not trade away

Behind every page and every frame is a set of beliefs that shaped it. Ours are written down so that the work — and the people who make it — can be measured against them.

Veritas

Truth

We say what happened, as the record shows it happened. If we cannot source it, we do not say it.

Testimonium

Record

Every claim in the memoir, the legal volume, and the scripts traces to a document. The citations are the work.

Fraternitas

Brotherhood

Two brothers, fifty-fifty, one name on the chain of title. No decision is made without the other.

Ars

Craft

The standard is not "good enough." It is finished, tested, and impressive to the person who asked for it.

CONNECT WITH US

Stay close to the work

Occasional updates on the memoir, the screenplay, the series, and the documentary — sent only when there is something worth saying.

EMAIL

you@example.com

SUBSCRIBE

Your address goes to our inbox, nowhere else. Unsubscribe by replying "stop."

TRU★MEN

PRODUCTIONS

Viri Veri

We tell true stories that hold up — in court, on the page, and on screen.

LATEST NEWS

AUGUST 2026

Introducing TRU★MEN Productions

AUGUST 2026

Clearly Established: the manuscript is complete

RESOURCES

History

Meet the team

Values

Provocation · Prevarication ·
Revocation

FAQs

All projects

FOLLOW

Email

© 2026 Revelatory Productions, LLC, doing business as TRU★MEN Productions.
TRU★MEN and the star mark are trademarks of Revelatory Productions, LLC; registration pending.

Viri Veri